27 SUNDAY - THOUGHT POLLUTION

"Your thoughts should be wholly directed to all that is true, all that deserves respect, all that is honest, pure, admirable, decent, virtuous, or worthy of praise." —Philippians 4:8

Once a father caught his young son using a curse word. The father took his son into the kitchen and poured him a tall, clear glass of juice. He gave the drink to his son, who took a big gulp. Next, the father took a spoonful of sewage and dropped it into the glass. He gave it to the boy to drink. This time, the boy made a face and refused to drink it. The father asked, "Why won't you drink it now? There's only a small bit of sewage in the glass. You can drink around it." "No," said the boy, "it's polluted now." "Ah," said Dad, "and that's what your mind looks like when you think a bad thought and curse like you just did now."

Likewise, the Lord requires all our thoughts to be under His lordship (Phil 4:8). Our thoughts must be "wholly directed to" His kingdom (Phil 4:8). We are to "bring every thought into captivity to make it obedient to Christ" (2 Cor 10:5). A few evil thoughts don't make our minds mostly good; rather, our minds are polluted.

How can we control every thought? We start by completely repenting and giving our whole mind to the Lord (Mt 22:37). He knows our thoughts (Ps 139:2; Lk 11:17). He will scrub away any filth from our thoughts (cf Jn 2:15). Then, we can immerse ourselves daily in God's word, which "judges the reflections and thoughts" of our mind. Like a double-edged sword, His word cuts evil thoughts away and displaces them with His living Word (Heb 4:12). In His word, God "declares to man His thoughts" (Am 4:13). Read and think God's word.

Prayer: "Let the words of my mouth and the thought of my heart find favor before You, O Lord" (Ps 19:15).

Contact: Cara Ashford at 806-584-6250 or ashfordcara@gmail.com (preferred), if you have information for the bulletin.

October 15, 2017 is the World Mission Sunday: Our Holy Father says that, Gospel joy comes from sharing. The joy of the Gospel is born of the encounter with Christ and from sharing with the poor. World Mission Sunday is an opportunity to rekindle our desire and our moral obligation to participate joyfully in mission across the whole world. A monetary contribution on the part of individuals is the sign of a self-offering, first to the Lord and then to others and so in this way a material offering such as a donation of money by individuals to Missio can become a means built on love for the evangelisation of humanity. The Church, a welcoming home for all. Let us pray through the intercession of Mary, the model of joyful evangelisation, that the Church may become a welcoming home for all peoples and the source of rebirth for our world.

"Mission Sunday offers each of us an opportunity to put more emphasis on our common missionary vocation which leads Christ's disciples to become apostles of his Gospel of reconciliation and peace. The mission of salvation is universal -- for every person and for the whole person. It is a task which involves the entire People of God, all the faithful. Mission must therefore be the passion of every Christian; a passion for the salvation of the world and ardent commitment to work for the coming of the Father's kingdom."

RCIA The Journey of Faith begins with your questions

What is faith? How does faith grow? What do Catholics believe and why is it different from other faith traditions? How different is it really?

Classes for the Christian Initiation of Adults are available for anyone who wants to learn more about the Catholic faith. The process begins with an "Inquiry" period when questions lead to exploration. Drop in – no obligation, no commitment, no pressure at our Q & A sessions.

The second phase is the "Catechumens" period for those who are interested in becoming fully Catholic. Classes end in the Mystagogy period, with a focus on how to identify God's special calling and purpose for your life.

If you'd like to take this journey of faith, call the
